TIE ENDS FOOTBALL

Whites and Blues Play Heart-Breaking Game.

The sports had a chance yesterday to witness a good fast game of footcan wield a golf club almost as well as ball. This is the first time that a good large crowd has watched the "hoot men" do stunts with their toes

> Yesterday's game was as pretty an exhibition of the popular English game as could be wished for and the people who lined the field and filled the stand seemed to be pleased at the way little Woo and Bill Campbell would take the ball away from the huskies.

"Talk about your butting in," said an interested spectator, "those fellows 91 must have thick skulls from the way they go at that ball.'

It may be interesting to know that 89 this is one of the most scientific parts 14 of the game to place the ball with your head as well as your feet.

The game yesterday was played between two picked teams who were 79 named the Blues and Whites. These two teams were so evenly matched that one could not out play the other and at the end of a fast game each had scored four goals. The game started with the Whites 81 in the lead and they wasted no time 97 in scoring the first goal after some 91 clever wing passes. It was nip and

NEW YORK, Feb. 10 .- The much-discussed question as to whether Terry McGovern has quit the fighting game J. W. Harvey, 1st, 48 out of 50; K. B. has been settled by his manager, Sam Harris, who declared that McGovern was still in the fighting game, and, beside, was in better shape than he has

Harris further stated that as soon as McGovern was through with his theatrical show he would be prepared to fight Battling Nelson, Jimmy Britt or Abe Attell.

Jack Munroe will make another attempt to earn a few dollars in the ring, and it is to be hoped that he will give a better exhibition than his last one. A Philadelphia club will put the miner on shortly with Jack Wille in a six-round bout.

"What a Mecca for fighters New York would be for the short-haired brothers were the lid to be lifted from the big town," says a Western sporting writer, "What a boom it would be for a game which seems to be on its last legs." The uncertainty of a match between Jimmy Britt and Jabez White, the English champion, being arranged, suggests the probability of the Californian accepting Battling Nelson's challenge for a return match. The latter has posted $5,000 with Harry Corbett as a forfeit to indicate his sin-

The following shows how Jimmy

Britt has got the coin: The first fight was with Toby Irwin, which netted him $2,000. Ten days later he met Tim Hegerty for beating whom he received $3,000. Kid Lavigne came next and Britt's bit for winning was $4,500. Next came Frank Erne and the spoils added $5,500 to Britt's coffers. He only received $1,500 when he lost to Jack O'Keefe on a foul. By winning from Willie Fitzgerald he received $5,000, and his return engagement with Jack O'Keefe netted him $2,500, His bout with Charley Sieger gave him $5,000, but he received only $3,000 for beating Martin Canole. Then came his big battle with Young Corbett, which netted Britt $17,000. He re eived $12,500 for his fight with Gans and $12,000 for defeating Battling Nelson, This amount of money added to $19,000 made in theatricals sums up close to $83,000, all made in less than three years,
